If you're looking to express yourself—and your hunger—look no further, Redlands has a new eatery in town.

El Kiosko Express, a cooked-to-order Mexican food haven has settled along Colton Avenue, giving patrons the freedom to “make it how they want it.”

Known for its carne asada burritos and hearty taco salads in its original restaurant location in Rialto, El Kiosko Express owner, Erik Morden, is looking to create a different buzz in Redlands.

LEGO event inspires future builders

Local architect, Michael Burke, discusses how LEGOs can be used to design in the real-world.

By Yazmin Alvarez

The sound of plastic pieces hitting tables filled the air last week as dozens were building structures inside of a Redlands bookseller.

But actual construction work wasn't going on in the store.

Instead, hands were busy creating masterpieces out of LEGOs.

Fingers rummaged endlessly through boxes filled with monochromatic LEGO pieces as Barnes & Noble hosted the launch of LEGOs newest set, LEGO Architecture Studio.

The free event offered teens and adults a chance to create modules using real-world designs and

Redlands sets Back2School Jam, Community Clean-Up Day

The Redlands Police Department and Micah House, with help from local businesses, churches, community groups and City and county agencies, will give away bicycles and backpacks during a Back2School Jam and Community Resource Fair at Sylvan Park from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, Aug. 3. There will be free snacks and music provided for the community.

The giveaway is held in conjunction with a Community Clean-Up Day, from 8 a.m. to noon Friday, Aug. 2. Neighborhood clean-up locations include Post Street and Brockton Avenue, Cook Street and Cero Court, The Terrace, Citrus Avenue and Kaye Court, and Second Baptist Church, 420 E. Stuart St. Each child or teen participating in the clean-up day will receive a free backpack and school supplies.

Last year more than 600 backpacks and school supplies were donated to children and youth. This year the goal is to donate 1,200. Donations of school supplies, backpacks or money are needed. Any donation helps and is greatly appreciated. Checks can be made payable to City of Redlands (Attn: Back to School Jam).

The free events are open to the community and intended to support success in school for local youth by providing resources to children and families in a family-friendly setting. Various organizations will be participating.

The Redlands Police Department's purpose is to control crime before it occurs by supporting strong families, resilient youth and safe and sustainable neighborhoods.

If you have any questions, or would be interested in donating or attending the event, please feel free to contact Event Coordinator Officer Elyzabeth Green at 909-798-7534 ext. 2 or at egreen@redlandspolice.org.
